RE: Nominations for the 2022 WALSAA Outstanding Advisor Award

The UW-Madison College of Agricultural and Life Sciences (CALS) invites nominations for the 2022 WALSAA Outstanding Advisor Award. Please see below for award description, eligibility, nomination packet, selection criteria (expectations of accomplishments), review process, submission and deadline. Lists of past recipients are available at: <https://cals.wisc.edu/about-cals/awards/cals-awards/>.

WALSAA Outstanding Advisor Award

The WALSAA Outstanding Advisor Award goes to a faculty or academic staff member who has demonstrated a high degree of concern and exceptional effort to provide undergraduates (individuals, teams, or clubs) in the college with academic and/or personal guidance. The following should be included in a nominating letter for the WALSAA Outstanding Advisor Award. We are looking for insight into:

- Quantity of advising (e.g. number of advisees, contributions to student groups).
- Quality of advising (e.g. accessibility, willingness to help, knowledge of program).
- Related activities (e.g. internships, independent studies, placement, mentoring).
- Other contributions to undergraduate needs and interests.

In addition to the letter of nomination, up to two letters of reference from colleagues or other individuals who are familiar with the nominee's advising may be included. Letters may come from faculty, staff, or students. Student nominators are strongly encouraged to contact the nominee's department for assistance.

Nomination Packet

1. Letter of nomination, to include:
  - a. Information outlined above<sup>1</sup>;
  - b. Author's current relationship with nominee, including major and year if a student and length of relationship

---

<sup>1</sup> Student nominators are encouraged to contact the nominee's department for information, particularly for the number of advisees. If you have questions about which department to contact, please contact Megan Ackerman-Yost at megan.ackermanyost@wisc.edu.

2. One additional letter of reference from faculty, staff, or students familiar with nominee's advising
  - a. Letter should include relationship with nominee, including major and year if a student and length of relationship

Selection Criteria for Advisor Award

- Quantity of Advising (20%). Number of advisees; time investment; and contributions to student groups, clubs, and professional organizations.
- Quality of Advising (70%). Accessibility and willingness to help, knowledge of degree requirements, quality of student records, involvement with internship, and placement.
- Other contributions to undergraduate needs and interests (10%).

Review Process

Submissions will be reviewed by the CALS Curriculum Committee or an awards sub-committee based on the above criteria. Nomination packets will be ranked by each committee member, and the members will deliberate the relative merits of the packets and rankings.

Submission and deadline:

- Please submit the nomination materials electronically as one PDF document to megan.ackermanyost@wisc.edu by Friday, February 11, 2022.
